

 Click to PrintSAVE THIS | EMAIL THIS | CloseHome » Blogs » Business Blogs Business Blogs

Dollars & Sense

Practical advice on how to save money and keep your wits during a lousy economy

SHARE buying club offers \$25 Christmas dinner for 6

By Karen Herzog

Dec. 12, 2009

There may be no such thing as a free lunch, but you can feed six people Christmas dinner for $25.

The SHARE Food Buying Club will hold a Christmas Dinner Package Sale at its warehouse in Butler, 13111 W. Silver Spring Drive, from noon to 2 p.m. on Dec. 19. It's first come, first served, and supplies are limited.

This is your chance to save 30% to 50% on quality food for your family, thanks to the club's bulk purchasing power. Or, give the gift of Christmas dinner to another family that cannot afford it.

"Especially in these tough economic times, more and more families may not be able to celebrate the holidays in their usual ways," said Ben LeFort, communication and public information manager for SHARE.

The dinner for six includes: a six-pound boneless honey ham, canned pineapple, a gelatin ring mold, fixings for chocolate cake with dark sweet cherries, and a fresh produce assortment including potatoes, broccoli, carrots, apples and oranges. (Selection may vary.) Anyone can purchase food through SHARE; there are no eligibility requirements.

Warehouse doors open at noon on Dec. 19. Cash, credit/debit cards and Quest/Link cards will be accepted. For more information, call (800) 548-2124. SHARE requests no phone orders.

Post a Comment

Comments (0)

Permalink | Email This Blog