SHARE Wisconsin Offers Holiday Meal For $25

Meals Available For Purchase From Noon To 2 P.M. Saturday

UPDATED: 4:53 pm CST December 17, 2009

BUTLER, Wis. -- SHARE Wisconsin is offering complete Christmas meals for less than a tank of gas.

Volunteers assembled the packages on Thursday.

They include a 6-pound boneless honey ham, fixings for a cake, a gelatin mold, potatoes, fresh broccoli and other assorted vegetables and fruits.

Organizers said the struggling economy is encouraging more people to participate in their food buying program.

"In general, we've been up about 30 percent over the prior year. As the year has progressed, we'll be doing close to 6,000 Christmas dinners," SHARE Executive Director Paulette Flynn said.

The $25 Christmas dinner sale is from noon to 2 p.m. Saturday at the SHARE warehouse on 131st Street and Silver Spring Drive in Butler.

Cash, credit and debit cards and quest and link cards are accepted.

The sale is first come first serve and the supply is limited.
