SHARE Food Buying Club offers holiday dinners

The SHARE Food Buying Club is beginning its SHARE the Season campaign offering Thanksgiving and Christmas dinner packages with all the fixings to cook a meal for six, including a large assortment of seasonal fresh fruits and vegetables.

Everyone is welcome to purchase food through the program and pick it up at a local location. Many individuals, groups and organizations can also purchase packages for community outreach.

The holiday dinner packages cost $25 each, plus shipping and handling fees in some areas.

SHARE's Thanksgiving dinner package features a 12- to 14-pound turkey, stuffing mix, cranberry sauce, an 8-inch pumpkin pie and a fresh produce assortment with potatoes, celery, acorn squash, apples, oranges and other seasonal produce. Beginning Oct. 13, families can shop for the Thanksgiving dinner package online at www.sharewi.org. The ordering deadline is Tuesday, Nov. 2, and pickup will be Saturday, Nov. 20.

SHARE's Christmas dinner package includes a 6-pound boneless honey ham, canned pineapple, a corn soufflé, an 8-inch apple pie and a fresh produce assortment with potatoes, broccoli, carrots, apples, oranges and more. Beginning Nov. 10, order online at www.sharewi.org. Orders must be placed by Tuesday, Nov. 30, for pickup on Saturday, Dec. 18.

Online orders can be accepted beginning on the dates listed above, or orders can be placed immediately by contacting Kathy Haley-Rehbaum at 920-988-4381.

Local businesses, churches and other organizations are also invited to participate in SHARE the Season. Some organizations make cash donations or give SHARE gift certificates so deserving local families can have a holiday meal. Other organizations gather volunteers to form a SHARE holiday dinner package distribution site.
